“Learn this lesson well, once and for all: God is the only Master of our hearts; God alone can give solid peace, and our whole confidence must rest in God only.” St. Claude de la Colombiere

Would it not have been wonderful to have been one of Jesus' first disciples. We would have seen Jesus in the flesh, heard his voice, listened to his teachings and witnessed his miracles. We would have felt his nearness and rejoiced in this great gift. But we are offered a gift that is even more precious. We are offered a closeness to Jesus that is even more intimate than what was experienced in those first days. As Jesus was about to leave this earth, he gave us a means to be united to him in the closest possible way: “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.” In the Eucharist, we live in him and he lives in us. Being united to Jesus in the Eucharist is a great gift of an even deeper intimacy. (Excerpts from “Living With Christ” June 2014)

Randall Resident: Thank you so much for my beautiful Easter basket. It radiates giving over my entire little suite. I explore a new goodie every day. Sweet surprises that make a little old lady happy. This is a first one for me. I don't remember ever receiving an Easter Basket. Thank you with blessings.

RCIA: Do you know of someone who has expressed interest in the Catholic Church but hasn't taken any action on it? How about someone who may have asked questions about your faith and you can tell they are searching? Are you the only non-Catholic in your family and you have questions about the Church? If you know these people, invite them to consider our RCIA this coming year. They can call us or if you contact me I will extend an invitation to them. Contact Deacon Chuck Wright at 667-3419, ext. 203 or email at charleswright@woh.rr.com.
