FROM THE DESK OF FR. MARC SHERLOCK

On Monday of this week, June 30, I complete 10 years as Pastor of St. John the Baptist Parish and 35 years as a Priest of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. I continue to be grateful for all the cooperation, support and kindnesses I receive from our parishioners.

As you all know, the shortage of Priests is becoming more severe. I would like to ask parents to encourage their sons to consider the Priesthood in addition to other life choices they may be considering. The support and encouragement of parents is invaluable in the choices that children make.

FR. CHRIS COLEMAN: Fr. Chris Coleman did his year of seminary internship here at St. John the Baptist in 2003-2004. On June 30 of this year, he completed his 6-year term as Pastor of St. Anthony Parish, Dayton. On Tuesday, July 1, he began his new assignment as Pastor of 3 parishes in the Cincinnati area: Our Lady of the Rosary, Greenhills; St. Mathias, Forest Park; and St. James of the Valley, Wyoming. Please keep Fr. Chris in your prayers as he begins this new and challenging assignment.

PRAY FOR RELIGIOUS FREEDOM: We encourage all parishioners to pray for Religious Freedom. We especially pray that any laws in the Affordable Health Care Act be overturned that cause people to violate their conscience by paying for any services contrary to Church teaching. A founding principal of the United States is the separation of Church and State.

Festival Committee is in immediate need of parish members for the following positions – co-chairs/team chairing is encouraged!

Sweet Tooth Booth Chair

Entertainment Chair

Lemon Shake-up/Ice Cream Booth Chair

Volunteer Coordinator

If you would like to help with any of these areas, or would like more information, please call Jennifer Weir at 667-0282.

New Books and CDs in the library!!!! There are several new books that have been donated to our library. There are also several new CDs for your listening pleasure. The topics covered range from inspiration to things all Catholics should know. To mention a few authors:

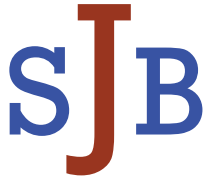

- Max Lacato
- Antoinette Bosco
- Sr. Joyce Rupp
- Scott Hahn
- Fr. Robert Barron
- Macrina Wiederkehr

Come check it out!!

"In every way, Christ teaches us to be like Him in humility and goodness. In weakening and breaking impulses of our rampant passions, He strengthens us by the example of His leniency, by granting us in faith pardon of all our sins." St. Hillary of Poitiers

The ancient rabbis used to refer to the Mosaic Law as a kind of yoke. But Jesus' metaphor in today's gospel is different because central to His "yoke" or wisdom or law is the Lord Himself. He practiced what He preached. He was gentle toward the people He served and humbly obedient to the will of His Father. He called us to love one another and laid down His own life for us. He promises that His yoke will be kind and gentle to our shoulders, enabling us to carry our load more easily. Why? Because, Jesus will help us if we ask Him. It is as though Jesus says to us, "Walk alongside me; learn to carry the burdens how I do it. If you let me help you, the heavy labor will seem lighter." Dear Lord, please help me remember to share my burdens with You. I, many times forget to ask and try to do it myself. (Excerpts from "Living With Christ" July 2014)
